

Web Site Consultancy

The Word Pool

Is your web site everything you hoped for?

Does it have the right feel?

Do visitors keep coming back?

If the answer to any of these questions is “No”, our consultancy service can help you decide how to improve your site and make the most of the Web’s potential.

For a fee of £48 for an average size site, we will conduct an in-depth assessment of your site and provide a report covering the following points:

- overall impression
- suitability for target audience
- content
- page layout
- use of colour
- navigation
- speed
- appearance with different screen sizes and browsers
- recommendations for improvement
